THE FEAST OF THE RESURRECTION

Easter Sunday, the day on which we celebrate the resurrection of our crucified Savior, once more approaches. It is the most important Feast celebrated by the Catholic Church. Even Christmas falls into comparative insignificance from the Church's point of view. Because Easter is such an important Feast, we as Catholics should know why in order that we may better participate in this wonderful mystery.

At dawn on Sunday morning following Good Friday, Jesus Christ arose glorious and immortal from the tomb. This event which has been testified to by the Apostles and the indirect testimony of the soldiers is the most powerful proof that He is all that He claimed to be, that He is truly the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity. St. Paul points this out in graphic language when he writes in his epistle to the Corinthians: "If Christ be not risen again, then is our preaching in vain, and your faith is also vain." The resurrection is, therefore, the foundation stone of our Catholic Faith. If Christ had not risen, there would have been no Church. The apostles would have recognized Our Lord as a rank impostor and deceiver. However, that they not only taught the fact of the Resurrection but also laid down their lives as testimony for its veracity, is evident proof of this happy event.

This victory over sin secured by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Church celebrates in joyous mood. Her altars are decorated with flowers, her priests vested in gold, and the laity pours forth its faith in the beautiful hymns of alleluia. The Proper of the Mass is one continuous song of rejoicing.

We, too, as members of the Catholic Church, should take part in this glorious celebration as befits the occasion. Let us all hear Holy Mass and receive the Risen Savior into our hearts with greater love and tenderness than is our wont. In this way the Resurrection will be a pledge of our own future resurrection at the end of this world.—Levi Brown, St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw, April 17, 1943.

HATS OFF TO RETAILERS

THE retail merchant has become the man in the middle—in the middle of that no man's land—where a fighting government collides with a fighting, consuming public. Both of these fighting elements are allies, but like most allies they don't get along too well sometimes. A spoiled public which has been in the habit of getting what it wants when it wants it from an incredibly efficient retail distribution system, cannot be expected to don the halter of shortages and be led about by dictatorial decrees without kicking the daylight out of a few regulatory fences. Unfortunately the retailers upon whose shoulders fall the responsibility of explaining and applying the restrictions, are the ones who get kicked most often. For that reason it is only fair to give them a pat on the back occasionally. They deserve it.

Retail distributors, both chain and independent, have shown amazing ability to interpret and put into practical operation literally thousands of new wartime merchandising regulations conceived by lawyers and experts with little or no merchandising experience. Most of the regulations carry heavy jail sentences and fines for violation. Laboring in the shadow of stiff penalties, thousands of merchants throughout the country work out the rules as they understand them, often without benefit of legal advice, and put them in force. They know it has to be done or the distribution system will break down, bringing disaster to the country. They try to explain this to customers, while striving to get the government to simplify and ease inequalities in the rules. Neither the public nor most government experts actually comprehend the heavy responsibility which retail merchants bear in helping to maintain economic stability during the emergency.

Consumers should be slow to criticize the retailer for inconveniences over which he has no control. The government should constantly seek to make burdensome restrictions less onerous. And both the public and government should be less quick to accuse retailers of evil intent when one of ten thousand rules has been inadvertently violated.

A FAIR QUESTION

DR. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, takes note of "the failure of our public schools to teach American history" and then asks, "How much do present-day pupils know of elementary mathematics, of the English language and its grammar, of the literature of America and England?"

The educator then propounds a question, "What do the schools teach nowadays if they do not teach these elementary and vitally important subjects?"

This is a fair question.

The way the fighting in Africa is going the Desert Fox will soon have to desert.

The Japanese are going to learn something about the art of warfare before 1943 ends.

"Freedom of the Press" is available to the nation only so long as newspapers give free and fair expression of the news.

It's a good idea for those making increased wages to save some for the proverbial rainy day which will certainly come.

The nation has only one job at this time, to win the war; when peace arrives we can quarrel among ourselves as to how to prevent the next war.

What has become of the old-fashioned citizen who was convinced that the present generation of Americans were hope- less?

ORTTE THEATER PRESENTS "PANAMA HATTIE"

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Super Special, Starring Ann Sothern, Red Skelton—Sunday-Monday

The superb comedy talents of Red Skelton seem here to have been subdued by the theme. As one of a trio of comedy sailors, and with an exceedingly stupid character to portray, Skelton gives no indication of that ability to hold a lead part for more than an hour, which he demonstrated in "Whistling In The Dark." His companions, Ben Blue and Rags Ragland, do their best, but they are not funny enough however much New York theater audiences may have been tickled. Ann Sothern is pretty and convincing as Panama Hattie a natural and sincere dance hall girl; but because the plot is so light, Miss Sothern is but a pretty manikin who several times sings, makes faces and dances.

Good, restrained comedy is as usual delivered by Alan Mowbray, as a butler this time. Lena Horner is appealing, in dancing-singing routines, by herself, and with the Berry Brothers. One comedy limerick and dance routine stands out—that by Skelton, Ragland and Blue, with three Latin-American girls.

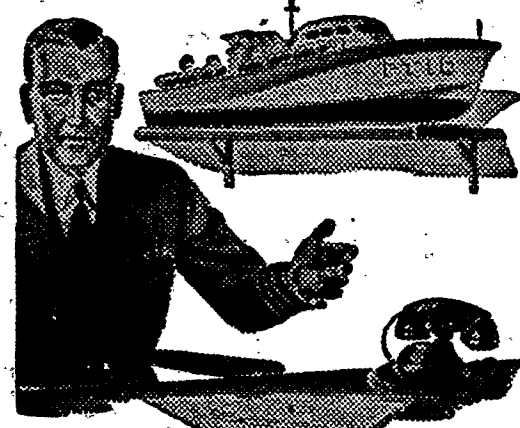

They also are funny hunting spies in a "deserted" house. Virginia O'Brien, as the poker-faced and lonely one, hunting for a lover, and fixing upon Mowbray, is certain of laughs. The plot revolves about the loves and quarrels between Dan Dalley, Jr., and Miss Sothern.

His daughter, Jackie Horner, complicates their attachment by finding Miss Sothern's posture, walk, speech and clothing funny. Miss Sothern is liked to the point of leaving Panama. But all ends well.

The film is based upon the play by Herbert Fields and B. G. DeSylva. Norman McLeod directed. Arthur Freed produced. The music and lyrics are by Cole Porter. Jack McGowan and Wilkie Mahoney wrote the screen-play. Danny Dare was the dance director; Vincente Minnelli staged the musical numbers. Walter Donaldson wrote one song, "At the Savoy." The extremely capable, sparkling negative is the product of George Folsey.

Aid to Enemy

"Any American who willfully neglects to pay his taxes on time or to invest every cent he can in War Bonds is surely giving aid and comfort to the enemy." We have a job to do and we are all called for service to our country. Our dollars are called to service too. Let us all ask ourselves, "Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?" — Secretary Morgenthau.

"U" Boats

Are a Menace — Help Us Destroy Them"

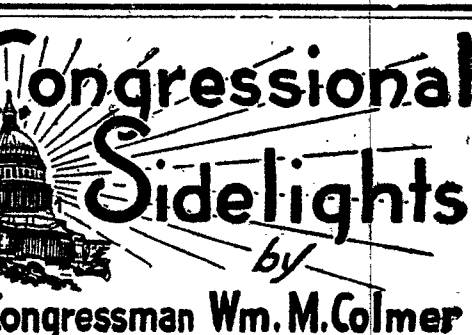

"One of the biggest tasks facing our Navy in this war is the building of sufficient escort vessels to protect our ships in convoy, against the torpedoes of prowling 'U' boats."

"The long distance telephone plays a vital role in the building of these sturdy ships that help keep our shipping lanes clear. From keel to top deck and from bow to stern, thousands of telephone calls assist the speedy launching of each powerful vessel—calls to suppliers and shippers in all parts of the country."

"How important it is then, that long distance telephone lines to war-busy centers be kept free of unessential calls."

"Those who build the tools to destroy our enemies are counting on you to help free the lanes of communication, that the seas may be freed for safe shipping."

PRODUCTION FOR WAR

At the beginning of the war President Roosevelt stated that this country could and would produce an air armada of 50,000 planes per year once our automobile and other peace-time factories were converted to the production of war materials. This statement was laughed at in Europe and was viewed with considerable skepticism by many Americans in this country. But the fact remains that in March of 1942 we produced 3,400 planes, and in March of 1943 we produced approximately 6,000 planes. At this rate of production (and it will increase) we are now producing 72,000 planes per year—but this is only a part of the story. In March of 1942 we produced 1,200 tanks; in March of 1943 we more than doubled that production by producing 2800 of these engines of destruction. In addition to this there were more than 7,800 other types of combat vehicles turned out of the assembly lines of our factories to war-time production. Add to this 80,000 Garand rifles, 58,000 carbines, 1,244,000 small arms cartridges, 1,932,000 high explosive shells, and 419,000 bombs of all types and you can get as near a conception of our war-time production as the human mind can conceive in view of these seemingly fantastic figures.

All of this means one thing; if the morale of this country holds up and its production can continue no country or combination of enemy countries can whip the United States of America. Victory is ultimate and assured. It is merely a question of time—time and space. If this country with its enormous and seemingly unlimited capacity for production were situated in Europe on the one hand or in Asia on the other instead of being three and five thousand miles removed from these war centers, that victory would be speeded up immensely. But again, as always, it must be borne in mind that all of these articles of destruction must be transported to the scene of activities, it is a question of transportation. The need for ships today is as acute as it has ever been, and that need will continue as long as the enemy survives.

DISCRIMINATORY FREIGHT RATES

Some three years ago the President made a statement to the effect that the South was the nation's economic problem No. 1. We responded at that time that if the Administration would cease the discrimination against the South in the freight rates which had retarded its industrial development for years the condition to which the President referred could no longer be said to exist. The south under present structure of rates bears from 8 to 56 per cent more than is charged in the "official territory," which is the preferred industrial North and East.

Southern delegates in Congress have worked industriously, cooperatively, and intelligently on this problem for years. But due to the practical, political isolation of the South in national politics, as a result of the "Solid South" political philosophy, they have been unable to overthrow this discriminatory system.

It is hoped that the Interstate Commerce Commission, which controls freight rates, is presently more friendly to our section than in previous years. To illustrate the viciousness of this discriminatory practice, the freight on a carload of lumber manufactured in Mississippi and shipped to New York is roughly as much as the freight on that same carload of lumber shipped from New York to San Francisco, California.

To Hasten Victory

No American wants this war to go one minute beyond the time we can bring it to a victorious end. To hasten that victory—to save possibly the lives of millions of our boys on our far flung fronts—it is imperative that every American do his part in the Second War Loan. There is an investment to fit every purse. The most you can do is little enough compared with the sacrifice offered by our boys in service. They give their lives—you lend your money.

"THIS IS IT"

After weeks, months or years of training, the men of our sea, land or air forces one day for the first time will meet the enemy. It may be that first patrol over enemy lines when a swift enemy wing comes down out of the sun; it may be a deadly streak of foam at night as the watch suddenly sees an enemy torpedo heading straight for an armed ship; it may be as the zero hour comes for a great deliberate push out through a shell-swept valley. Whenever it happens—then in an instant preliminaries end and then in spirit or in words our boys instinctively say "Well—THIS IS IT."

The need for a $13,000,000,000 War Loan, to be raised in three weeks should tell each one on the home front that for us, too, "This is it." This is the signal that "attack" is not a word confined alone to the battlefield. This is an indication that the preliminaries of financial planning are over. Beginning now we will increasingly face the costs of war as greatly increased personal responsibilities.

This is it! Americans today, as Americans always have, can be expected to do their part. BUY BONDS—TO THE LIMIT—TODAY!

Since many months before Pearl Harbor the physical facilities of Mississippi Power Company have been on a war basis. The company's resources have been and are being invested in Government Bonds and Notes. The cost of electric service has remained at low levels and has not contributed to increases in costs of war.

A Real Easter Greeting For Him

"Sunday, April 25th, is Easter Sunday in North Africa and New Guinea—as well as in Bay St. Louis. Easter to our men in fox-holes and slit-trenches will have a double meaning if they know we've put the 2nd War Loan over the top by Saturday, April 24th," said Mr. Jos. O. Mauffray, Chairman, Hancock County War Finance Committee today. He continued, "We'll reach our $137,000.00 quota by the 24th and make our Easter Greetings to our boys a tangible record of 100 per cent support."

Strange! But the Jap's the Prisoner

This fine, young American was formerly employed by the L & N at Louisville, Kentucky... volunteered in 1941... fought at Bataan... was captured by the Japanese.

Temporarily, a Little Jap with a Big Gun holds him in a concentration camp.

Physically confined? Yes! But his soul is free and his American Spirit soars back across the seas to his beloved homeland where...

men speak, live, plan, work, play and pray as they choose;

every person is master of his fate;

life and property are protected by law;

children laugh and grow up in freedom to reach high places in government or industry according to their merit.

Yes, the Jap's the real prisoner. He has never known the joys of individual freedom. His lot is to serve a master blindly. He has never known the glorious privilege of living under laws that he has had a part in making. He has never seen Free Men and Free Enterprise build a wonderful country like America where the comforts of the ordinary man are beyond his fondest dreams.

Ours is a great Country, made so under our form of government, by Free Men, by Free Enterprise. That's what we are fighting to preserve.

The immediate purpose of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad and employees is to help win the war. This done, its energies will be again directed to the South's all-around development in which it has already played an important part. Despite much misunderstanding of the complicated freight rate structure, the average rates on actual movement from the South to the North are as low as, or lower than, from the North to the South. To encourage the free movement of goods manufactured in the South to consuming centers in the North and East, Southern railroads make rates necessary to accomplish that purpose.

Letters From The Boys In Service

From Pvt. Jos. L. Koerner, Camp Swift, Texas.

Dear Mr. Favre:
Just a few lines to say hello, and to ask that you send the Echo to my new address. While I was in New Britain, Connecticut, I really enjoyed reading it, and it seemed to bring me closer home.

I hope that this letter finds you, your family and all the members of the Echo Staff, well. Give them my regards.

Since there is no more news, I will close.

Hoping to receive the next issue of the Echo, I remain

Sincerely yours,
Pvt. Jos. L. Koerner.

From Pvt. Morris Garcia, Fort Bliss, Texas.

Dear Editor:
I have only been in the Army a short period of time, but in that time I have had an opportunity to absorb and participate in the making of a military machine that some day will help free this world from fear.

Before joining the army I had only the vaguest conception of what it was all about. That conception, I believe, is shared by the average citizen.

The army has given me a new sense of responsibility. It has taught me the difference between the fast discipline of a democratic country, and the harsh dictates of fascism.

In all respects it has broadened me physically, mentally and morally. In fact, it has given me a new lease on life.

I also believe that the United States Army will in the future be one of the greatest determining factors in the lives of every young man.

I am writing this out of a sense of conviction to tell the folks back home what the army has done and meant to me.

Sincerely yours,
Pvt. Morris Garcia.

From Sgt. Hugh H. Moore, in North Africa.

Dear Mr. Favre:

Just a few lines to let you know how much your splendid paper brightens the days, not only for me but many of my comrades over here. As the mail is often delayed getting here, I usually receive three or more copies of the Echo at one time. We my section and myself, read the different editions over and over. Even though these boys come from many sections of the States, they sincerely believe the Echo to be the best "dum" paper published. Don't be at all surprised, if, after we finish the "Hun," I bring to Bay St. Louis some of the best "dum" tankmen in the United States Army. They already call it "Home."

I saw by a recent copy of the Echo where Ernest Milam is tail gunner in a B-17 over here in Africa. It's good to know that somebody from home is upstairs giving "The Fox" the "Hun."

In know we all wish "Pee-wee" good hunting.

There is not too much time for writing here, and all I have is pencil and paper, which I hope you will excuse.

I see where the boys at Stanslaus are using the WEFT system to aid them in identifying aircraft. That's the system we use, and you can tell for me it works; that is, of course, when you have the time to go through the procedure.

I guess I will have to close now, as the candle is burning pretty low. Again let me thank you and the good citizens of Bay St. Louis.

Sincerely,
Sgt. Hugh H. Moore.

From Angus R. (Buddy) Colson, c/o Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, California:

Dear Red:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you and all who have a part in sending me the Sea Coast Echo. For the past several months I have wanted to write you, but have been very busy.

I have not had the pleasure of meeting any of the boys from home here, but there are two boys from New Orleans with me who also enjoyed reading the Echo.

Someday I hope to return to Bay St. Louis, and when I do I shall bring my wife and son.

Through you, I would like to tell all the men in the Armed Forces from our country and lovely city. Hello! I'm with them to the end, and God be with them till we meet again.

Here's wishing you and your family the best of luck.

Yours truly,
Buddy.

From Dave McDonald, Fort Benning, Georgia:

Dear Mr. Favre:

From what I read in the Echo, I am sure that you have received many letters of thanks from the boys in service, and I'd like very much to add my own thanks to those of the other Bay boys.

The Echo could never mean as much to the townspeople as it does to the boys in service who are a long way from home and don't get to see any Mississippi papers. I first found that out when I was in college and it is even more true now.

I particularly enjoy reading the "Letters" Column and I'm sure that everyone enjoys letters like the recent ones you published from Harry Tucker and Ernest Milam.

Life here is quite fast and there is naturally a great deal of strain, but on the whole, it's a very nice outfit.

Herman Baxter, a former Bay boy, is also here in Officer Candidate School, but he's in another regiment and I haven't seen him for about six weeks.

Incidentally, I missed last week's paper and I'd like for you to see if I am on the mailing list correctly.

There has been no change of address. Thanks again for making the Echo available to us, free of charge, and I assure you that you have the gratitude of the Bay boys wherever they may be.

Sincerely,
Dave McDonald.

From E. B. Richardson, Houston, Texas:

Dear Sirs:

I am now receiving the Echo, and am very grateful to the ones that make it possible. I am also happy to be able to read the hometown news, and to know the whereabouts of my fellow soldiers and sailors.

I am looking forward to the homecoming day to be able to go back to Bay St. Louis to stay.

Thanking you in every respect, I remain with very best personal regards.

Sincerely,
E. B. Richardson.

From ACS A. J. Piazza, Jr., Davidson, North Carolina:

Dear Mr. Favre:

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how much I appreciate your sending me the Echo, and also to give you my new address. I look forward every week to receiving it in the mail call. I guess it isn't until you are away that news from home means the most.

Army life at Davidson seems a little different. It is just like going back to school. I expect to be here anywhere from two to five months, depending upon my classification.

This is a very neat school and the students here are very friendly.

Thanking you again, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
ACS A. J. Piazza, Jr.

After studying the situation over Gov. Johnson has agreed to call the legislature in extraordinary session for the purpose of appropriating a suggested two million dollars for the benefit of the public schools. Gov. Johnson intimates that he will expect members of the legislature to agree to a short session, probably about five days, and that the activity of the lawmakers will be confined to the matter of making the appropriation for schools. It is probable that he may poll the membership by letter. The Governor can convene the legislature but he cannot adjourn the body or control the length of the session. However, proposed legislation can not be considered unless submitted by the governor in writing. But there is no limitation on resolutions. It seems that the Governor does not contemplate calling the session immediately, but the teachers insist that there should be, no delay. Unless special elections are ordered there will be around 30 vacant seats when the session convenes.

Rice Back from Rate Meet

Attorney General Greek L. Rice has returned from attending a meeting of the Interstate Commerce Commission at which the freight rate discrimination against southern states was discussed. Gen. Rice feels very hopeful that something will be done toward equalizing freight rates in all the states so that the states of the South will no longer suffer this handicap, which has hurt business in all of the southern states.

Ordered Flags Returned

A report from the State Capital of Wisconsin says that state has held since the War between the States 13 Confederate battle flags captured by the Union soldiers of Wisconsin, and that now the Legislature of the state has ordered the return of six of these flags to the states from which they were captured, and others would be returned but for the fact that they are so badly torn and soiled that they cannot be identified. At least two of these flags will come to Mississippi, to the 19th Mississippi Infantry and Mississippi Devils.

Fried Chicken Famine

The Capitol City seems to be suffering from a "fried chicken famine," and it is a double disappointment—for Mississippians dearly love their fried chicken and another reason is that chickens are not rationed and the only thing necessary to buy a chicken is to find one for sale and have the money to pay the price.

Cattle Sale at State

The annual "Jersey cattle sale" will be held at Mississippi State College on Monday, April 26th. Mississippi is rapidly developing Jersey cattle as well as beef types and people will come from far and near to attend the sale on the 26th.

Raking Around—

The state now has three candidates for Lieutenant Governor, Fielding Wright of Bolling Fork, John Lumpkin of Lumberton and Paul Spearman of Fulton. . . . Mrs. Ernest R. Peyton, 26, and her six children were burned to death last week when flames destroyed their farm home in Sharkey County. Mayor Kelly of Chicago won his third full term for mayor of that City in the election last week, defeating his Republican opponent by more than 100,000 majority. . . . Judge Ben Lindsey, founder of the Juvenile court, and otherwise famous, died in California last week at the age of 73. He was born on a farm near Jackson, Tenn., and had relatives in Jackson, Mississippi. . . . The law known in Mississippi as the "Jehovah Witness" act, upheld by the Supreme court of this state will be reviewed by the Supreme Court of the United States. . . . The government has launched a drive to sell at once $13,000,000 in war bonds to meet war expenses. . . . Secretary Morgenthau has outlined a plan to stabilize international money and set up a plan by which the nations of the world can operate after the war. . . . Lt. Jack T. Peebles of Coffeeville in lieu of a second air medal for "Meritorious achievement" in the "Southwest Pacific. . . . Lieutenant Hamford L. Simmons, Jr., of McComb was killed in a plane crash in Kansas last week, and the body was returned to his home for interment. . . . The Lexington Advertiser, one of Mississippi's oldest "Country Weeklies" was sold last week by its owner Lieut. W. C. Mabry, Jr., now in military service to Miss Hazel Brannon, publisher of the Durant News, who now has charge of both papers. . . . State WPA rolls have been reduced from 8,325 in January to 3,000 and all projects in the state are supposed to close by the last of April. . . . The G. M. & O. Railroad has reported a net profit of more than four million dollars from operations in 1942.

The 4th annual South Mississippi Livestock show was held in Hattiesburg last week, closing the three days show on Wednesday. Many fine specimens of stock were exhibited and many prizes awarded.

Gustave Pataillot, 78 Years, Died On Thursday

Gustave Pataillot, 78 years of age, died Thursday at about 7:30 p. m. at the home of his niece Mrs. Philip Adams where he had made his home for the past few years. He had been bed-ridden for more than a year. The family had left the house for a short period and were in the garden when they saw smoke coming from the house. Returning immediately, his room was filled with smoke from a smoldering floor fire. Mr. Adams picked Mr. Pataillot up and carried him into the next room and laid him on the bed where he died almost immediately. There were no burns and it was believed that he died from suffocation. The family thought that the fire originated from a lighted cigarette dropped from his bed.

Funeral services were held on Saturday from the home of the Adams in Dunbar avenue at 10 a. m. with the rites of the Catholic church, the Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch officiating. Interment was in the Panton cemetery where his wife is buried.

Mr. Pataillot was a native of France but had lived in Hancock county for 50 years. He had made his home at Panton for a number of years but had resided in Bay St. Louis for 25 years.

Mrs. Adams is the nearest surviving relative but he left several grand nieces and nephews.

The "come and get it" call never comes too early for hungry soldiers at the end of a day's march. It's a welcome call for pipeliners, too, as they wind up their day's work of patrolling gas transmission lines.

Important as a means of cutting down on transportation, these maintenance crews usually make two-week journeys—pitch camp to eat, and sleep where the day's work leaves them.

By keeping thousands of miles of high-pressure gas lines throughout the Gulf South in tip-top shape, these crews are performing a vital war-time service. For on the efficiency of these huge steel arteries greatly depends the output of war materiel. And nothing must interfere with the production of ships, guns, tanks, and planes that means success or failure to our heroic defenders of freedom.

"CASABLANCA" TO BE A. & G. THEATER SUNDAY-MONDAY

The action is contained in a few days of last December—except for a brief flashback to Paris of June 1940—when Casablanca was a stopping place on the passage of desperation from occupied Europe to free America. There in the American cafe, a center of pitiful gaiety, where forged vises change hands for fabulous prices gained at the roulette wheels, the central story of two men and a woman who loves them both reaches its climax.

Paul Henried is the great Czech patriot whose ultimate capture is insured by the watchfulness of German army officers and the fearful equivocation of the French police. Humphrey Bogart, the cold-eyed cafe owner, finds himself in possession of the only sure means of the man's escape as he discovers that Henried's wife (Ingrid Bergman) is the woman he loved in Paris. That the dramatic possibilities of the situation are not fully realized in a treatment that is often both sentimental and trite does not seriously detract from the general distraction of the film and the excellence of the performances. Moments of high tension and suspense are provided in the cat-and-mouse game played by French and Germans and the business of intrigue which supports the residents and kindles hope in the new arrivals. If the singing of "La Marseillaise" by a defiant cafe seems to carry more emotional import than the shooting of a German officer to insure the loss of a woman, the inclusion of both promises a wealth of drama for all tastes.

There is a careful opulence about the production which should redound to the credit of Hal B. Wallis and of Michael Curtiz, who directed. An unusual number of established performers—in addition to the three stars—has been gathered for the cast, but no effort is made to magnify their portrayals out of proportion to their weight in the story. As a result the pace is even, yet each role retains individual character. Claude Rains, Conrad Veidt, Sydney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre all appear to excellent advantage, hard-pressed for honors by Madeleine LeBeau, Dooley Wilson, Joy Page and Leonid Kinskey in briefer parts.

Setting, sound and staging repay the attention which all hands have lavished on the film. The timeliness of its title will help to assure the large audience it deserves.

MISSISSIPPI'S SECOND WAR
LOAN QUOTA OF $25,310,000
WILL BE OUR EASTER GIFT TO OUR MEN IN SERVICE

★ SUNDAY, April 25th, will be EASTER SUNDAY in North Africa and in New Guinea just as it will be Easter Sunday here in Mississippi. Certainly there can be no finer Easter Greetings from us to our brave fighting men than to let them know we are backing them up 100 per cent with all our resources. The 2nd War Loan Drive officially ends April 30th — BUT IN MISSISSIPPI we've set Saturday, April 24th AS 100 PER CENT DAY — we don't want to dilly-dally with this job — we don't want any last-minute stuff — we want to DO OUR PART FOR OUR FIGHTING MEN — NOW!

You have done your bit —

NOW DO YOUR BEST!

★ MOST EVERYONE has bought bonds — 10 per cent or so — during the past year. With the war getting tougher every day — with constantly increasing needs by our fighting forces for more planes, more ships, more guns, more ammunition — “our bit” IS NOT ENOUGH!

★ NOW, WE MUST DO OUR BEST — that means putting every penny over actual living necessities INTO GOVERNMENT SECURITIES between now and April 24th. Every man and woman on the home front owes this to every man on the fighting front. Certainly when they are GIVING their lives — we can do NO less than LEND our money. And we are only asked to LEND it — to put it in the best investments in the world!

He didn't lie in his fox-hole and figure out how much of his time, his heart and his life-blood he could “afford” to give his country. The only percentage HE knew was the one that was against him — and his fellow-fighters in the jungles, on the deserts, awash on the death-ridden seas.

Services At First Methodist Church

Services are being held every night this week, except Saturday, at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church. The attendance has been good and is getting better each night.

The Pastor, Rev. Eual Sample is conducting most of the services but Capt. Young, of the Merchant Marine Base, preached a most inspiring sermon Tuesday night and Rev. J. E. Campbell is conducting the services Thursday night and Friday night. The pastor will officiate at worship Friday morning at 8:30.

Services will be climaxed Sunday—at the 11:00 o'clock hour, Sunday, there will be special song services under the direction of Mrs. Carl T. Smith. Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock a play will be put on by the young people under the direction of Mrs. Eual Sample.

There will be sunrise communion services Sunday morning at 7:00 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited.

Time For Reflection

The Editor of this paper is really going to have a SWELL time for the next week or ten days. He will be confined to his bed with a swelled head, with nothing much to do except to read and reflect—and it certainly is time for reflection, when one has reached his second childhood at the age of 43.

The Editor is down with the MUMPS.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott have visiting with them for the week, their daughter and her two children Mrs. A. L. Enterante of New Orleans. Mr. Enterante, an employee of the Higgins Corporation will join his family here Friday and remain for the week end, returning to his duties Monday.

—Mrs. George R. Rea left Thursday morning for Wesson, where she will visit the James S. Reas. She will later go to Jackson where she will be a guest of honor at the State Federation of music clubs.

From there Mrs. Rea will go to Leland, Miss., for a visit to Mrs. George Walker and then to Starkville for a visit to Mrs. Alfred Garner.

—Blondie Brewer, boarding student at St. Joseph Academy, left the end of last week for New Orleans where she will enjoy a two weeks visit with her mother who is with the United States Army Nurses Corps stationed at Camp Wheeler, in Virginia, and whom Blondie had not seen since last October.

—Billy Simpson, son of Mayor and Mrs. Wm. G. Simpson, of Pass Christian, who has completed his basic training at the Merchant Marine Basic Training Station at Henderson Point, was accompanied to New Orleans on Monday by his parents and sister, Betty, and brother, Jimmy, from which place Billy left for an unnamed destination. Billy attended St. Stanislaus and has a number of friends in Bay St. Louis.

—Lieutenant and Mrs. H. H. O'Dell who have resided in Bay St. Louis for the past three weeks left Monday for Florida. Lieut. O'Dell was stationed at the bombing range here. This young couple made a number of friends while here and hope to return again.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mack Eagen, their two little daughters Brenda and Barbara and their two nieces, Miss Virginia Eagen and James S. Blaize, all of New Orleans were guests of Sunday of Mrs. Eagen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Blaize at their home in Washington street.

The Town Parade

By Chesterfield Skinner

Well, well, here we are, right in the middle of the biggest Bond Drive that ever has been pulled off. Certainly the community interest is running very high, so let's not let it cool off one bit, until we have accomplished our aim.

You know, things are pretty comfortable around this little town for us. Maybe, over yonder some place, where this money will be spent, the conditions are not so comfortable. Dwellings on that point, a little, may be some old boy from the Bay, right at this moment, is in northern Africa, sitting in the dark, alone, right in the middle of a cactus plant, where he landed, when the order was given, his squad to advance. Possibly, he is wondering as he sets there on those cactus thorns, afraid to make a move for fear he will acquire the enemy with his whereabouts, whether or not the folks back home are buying bonds freely, so that when he does get back to the lines, a pretty nurse, paid by your bond purchases, will be there to pick the stickers out of his posterior. Let's not force that old boy to spend the rest of his life, lying on his belly. Let's have that nurse right there, by buying bonds necessary to place her there.

I always knew that the life of the Banker, was comparable to the life of Riley. You know that only as individuals can the bankers subscribe to the second issue of Defense Bonds. Now, ain't that something? They will not loan you money if they can get around it at the bank and this being a Government by the people, by golly, we won't borrow from them either. I'll bet they feel bad about that, and it is the first time I ever knew that we ever had a chance to get even with them. Our quota of $137,000.00 for this County, is a pretty stiff figure to dig up. But we CAN and WILL do it. Some folks act like the Government is asking them to donate, but Brother, all they want you to do, is make them a loan.

Real Estate on these parts, sure is booming. Plenty folks, do not like the crowding of the city. Were it possible to get materials for construction, I'll warrant you that there would be plenty houses going up here in the Bay right now. It is too bad that we can't build them, because they will be in demand, after this fust is settled. The business here in the Bay, is firmly established. We will not skid into the dumps, like some of the other places, if a slump of some proportion comes along later. Set your trigger to stay right here. The fellow that leaves will all the time be wishing that he was back here anyway.

With the recent announcement of the rationing of pressure cookers for canning of fruits and vegetables, persons wishing to obtain cookers will be required to file applications for same and these applications may be procured from the office of County Agent Charles C. Stone, 3rd floor, Hancock County Court House.

Personal and General*RETURN FROM CHAPTER MEETING OF EASTERN STAR

Mrs. F. J. Nelson and Mrs. Thomas Miller have returned from Meridian where they attended the Grand Chapter meeting of the Order of Eastern Star and to which Mrs. Nelson was a delegate from the local chapter.

Mrs. Nelson said it was a splendid meeting and largely attended. Jackson led the state in the membership roll call having 785 members.

It was the Golden Rule session and the theme of the meeting was "Others." The first session was held in the First Baptist Church and the Rev. Mr. Meadows gave an inspiring talk on the subject of sacrifice in doing for others and gave as an example the recent account of the captain who was his close friend, on the torpedoed ship near the Florida Coast, seeing the filled life boats walked back to his cabin and went down with his ship.

Mrs. Galdys Bolton of Tupelo was elected state president and the theme of the next year's meeting will be "Faith."

LEO SEAL, JR. ENTERTAINED AT SUPPER

Leo Seal, Jr., entertained on last Thursday evening at a small supper at "Pine Cabins" preparatory to his departure this week for Camp Shelby.

Enjoying this supper were: Lando Goldman, Jack Garriga, Pat Murphy, Coach Clay Boyd and Mr. Leo W. Seal, Jr.

Leo Seal, Jr., is a graduate of Bay High School and a student at Mississippi State College and was called into service with a large number of boys from the College at Starkville.

MRS. C. C. McDONALD TO ADDRESS WISCONSIN P. T. A. CONGRESS

Mrs. C. C. McDonald will leave Sunday night for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to attend the state meeting of the Wisconsin Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. McDonald will address the meeting on "What Tomorrow Promises Our Youth."

MILITARY MAIDS ENTERTAIN MERCHANT MARINE CADETS

The Military Maids entertained the Merchant Marine Cadets on Saturday evening at a formal dance at the WOW Hall. Mrs. F. J. Bopp chaperoned the dance.

The Bay St. Louis ladies are still active in their courtesies to the cadets and are opening their homes from time to time. Mrs. F. J. Bopp recently took her guests to New Orleans for a tour through the old French Quarters which was doubtless a rare treat for the young men.

On Sunday Mrs. J. Roland Weston and her daughters Miss Mary Leigh Weston and Miss Shelby Weston entertained four of the cadets for dinner. They also had as their guests Misses Alicia and Rosemary Rollins.

Red Cross Donations Still Coming In

The Red Cross War Fund Drive should have closed officially on April 15 but since donations are still coming in it has not been announced.

On Monday the unique sign in the business section was a Red Cross and the mercury in the sign at the Court House had risen past the $5700.00 mark.

Lucien M. Gex, county chairman of the drive expresses his appreciation of the splendid work of his committees and the one hundred per cent cooperation of the people of the city and county and does not hesitate to say that he could not have put the drive over without this shoulder to shoulder team work.

On the other hand Mr. Gex has given his time and concentrated efforts to the work and so it has taken both the leader and his committees together with every man and woman and child to have over subscribed this large quota and in this way to have added another star to Hancock County's crown.

MAY H. EDWARDS
Publicity Chairman Red Cross War Fund Drive.

Knights of Columbus Triple Quota in War Bond Drive

Pere Le Duc Council of the Knights of Columbus whose quota in the present War Bond Drive was $7500.00 has tripled their quota with the splendid amount of $22,000.00 worth of sales in war bonds up to date.

This is an excellent showing and the Council is to be congratulated in their good work.

PRISONER OF WAR

Mrs. Rose Weir has received word that her adopted son, Jack Cornett Moon, is a prisoner of war held in a Japanese Concentration camp.

Jack Moon was with the heroes at Corregidor and had been in service for some time before Corregidor fell. Shortly after the fall of Corregidor, Mrs. Weir received official notification that her son, Jack, was missing in action and presumed dead, and the word that Jack is alive and a prisoner of war was revived hope that he may return to his home here.

Flower Show Committee Met on Tuesday

The Flower Show Committee of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club met on Tuesday and decided that instead of the Flower Show being given on a special date as first planned and announced that it would be given in connection with the May meeting on Thursday, May 13 at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. J. T. Frowell in Waveland.

The committee decided that each member be held responsible for at least one entry.
